

Some notable trends in attitudes toward specific behaviours at the University of Alberta:

Collaboration:

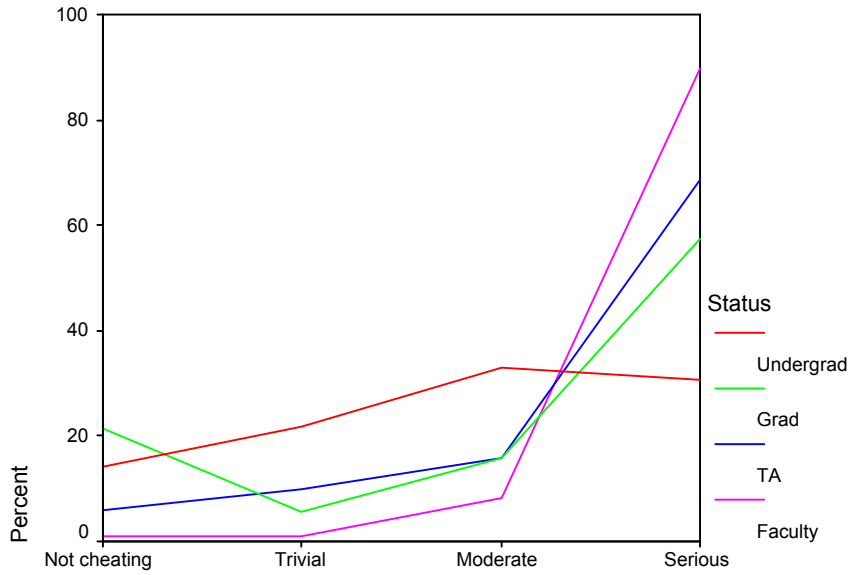

Working with others when individual work is expected

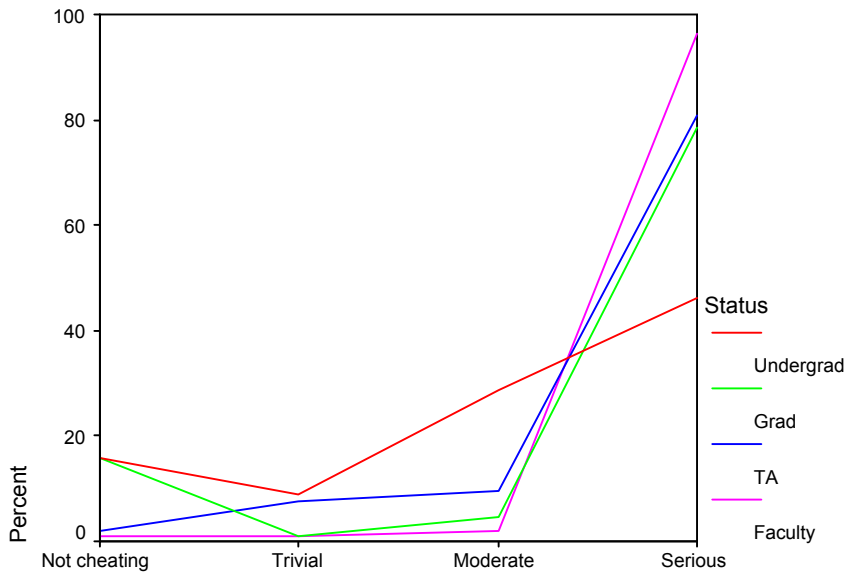

Receiving unpermitted help on an assignment

Misrepresentation of facts:

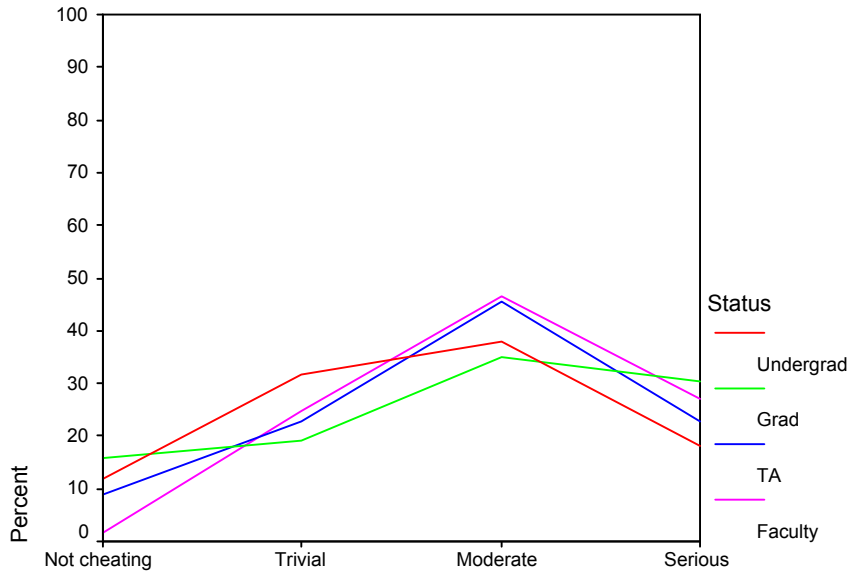

Fabricating or falsifying lab data

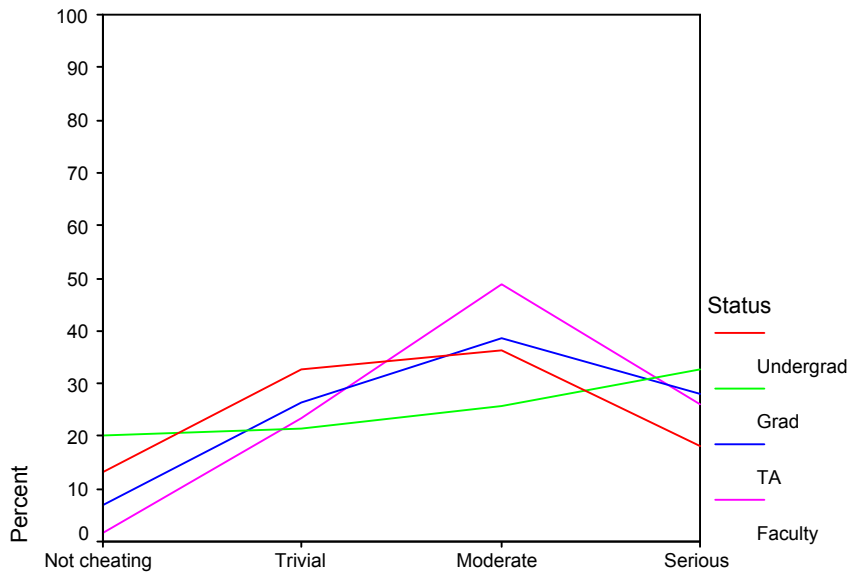

Fabricating or falsifying research data

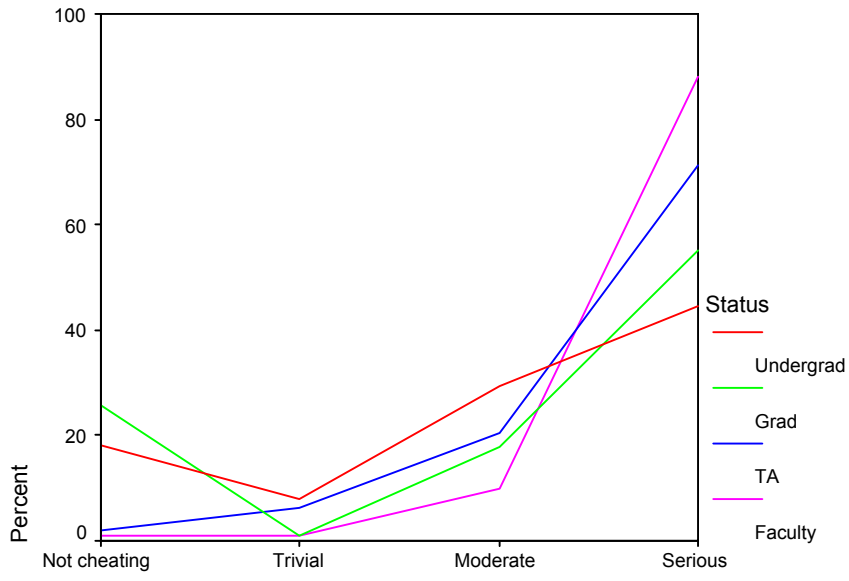

Plagiarism:

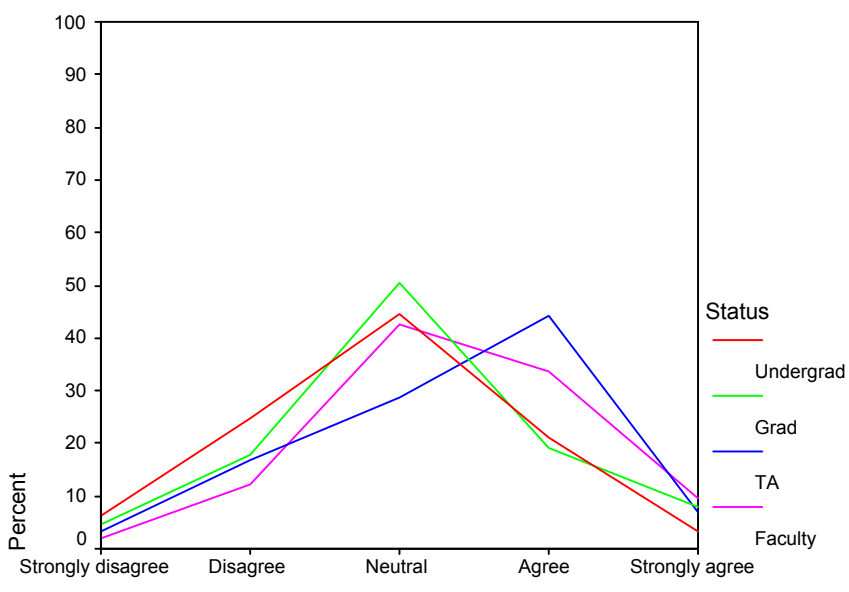

Copying from a written source without footnote

Copying from an Internet source without footnote

Copying computer program from a friend

Cheating is a serious problem at U. of A