

Marilyn Hamilton, PhD, CGA
Integral City Meshworks Inc.

DR. MARILYN HAMILTON is the founder of Integral City Meshworks Inc. and TDG Global Learning Connections. Marilyn is Charter Member of the Integral Institute and Integral-Ecology; Jury Member of Global Awards for Sustainable Cities; Founder of the Center for Human Emergence: Canada; and Convener of Quantum Woman Inquiries. She is a faculty member and guest lecturer at Royal Roads University, University of the Fraser Valley, University of British Columbia, Simon Fraser University, Banff Centre, University of Colorado, California Institute of Integral Studies and Adizes Graduate School.

Author of Integral City: Evolutionary Intelligences for the Human Hive, Dr. Hamilton blends frameworks and technologies from integral, evolutionary, developmental and living system approaches. She 'meshworks' or weaves people, purpose, priorities, profits, programs and processes to align contexts, grow capacity and develop strategies for eco-regional resilience. Dr. Hamilton facilitates sustainable development programs, enquiries, assessments, co-creativity practices and collaboration through her global network of interdisciplinary connections in community, workplace and academia.

Marilyn grew up in Edmonton and Calgary (and across Canada) and resides in Abbotsford BC with her husband Peter Dobson. She has served on the executives of many global and local organizations, recently as Advisor to Renaissance2 Worldshift Conference; Chair, Abbotsford Community Foundation; and Chair, Imagine Abbotsford.
