

Our University Works Because We Do!

As support staff at the University of Alberta, you are represented by NASA. NASA is the sole bargaining agent for support staff at the University of Alberta. NASA is your union. It responds to questions or problems you may encounter in your employment. Membership in NASA is voluntary. You do not become a voting member until you have completed and submitted a membership application form (see below).

NASA does not share personal information. Visit NASA's website for more information on our Privacy Policy.

If you have questions about NASA or your employment, please contact the NASA Office at:
